DETAILED ACTION

Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on June 15, 2005 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of 10/275,029 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Rejection Withdrawn

2. Claims 24 rejected under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by Pedginski has been withdrawn in view of the amendment submitted on June 15, 2005

Indicated Allowability withdrawn

3. Indicated allowability of claims 14, 18 and 21 has been withdrawn in view of the newly found reference of Duncan (4626460).

A complete action on the merit follows:

New Ground(s) of Rejections

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1772

5. Claims 14, 18 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pedginski (WO 95/33013) in view of Duncan (4626460).

Pedginski relates to a process of making four layer composite material consisting of a release coated liner wherein the release layer is co-extruded with an adhesive layer (abstract) and adhering the adhesive to a second substrate. The release liner can be paper, non-woven web or metal (page-9, lines 3-7). However, Pedginski fails to teach that the second substrate is paper, non-woven fabric or metal. Duncan discloses a method of applying a substrate or facestock of a label which is usually paper to the exposed surface of the adhesive to form a label web (col. 1, lines 16-22). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to utilize Duncan's teaching of using a second substrate on the exposed adhesive surface in the invention of Pedginski with the motivation to provide for a protective surface for the adhesive or a printable surface.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 18 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 18 and 21, as stated, are found to be confusing. It is not clear as to how said claims are further limiting the independent claim 14. Claim 18 recites that the two layer are extruded "simultaneously by the co-extrusion process", while claim 21 recites that two layer are "extruded between the two webs". Theses process steps does not appear to further limit claim 14.
